Françoise Héritier

Gérald Gaillard

Providing an introduction to the development and the ideas of Françoise Héritier, this book looks at the woman who succeeded Claude Lévi-Strauss as the Chair of Social Anthropology at the Collège de France. The book examines certain key structuralist concepts which she formed during some tumultuous world events, such as the independence of African States, the Aids crisis, of which she was the president of the national committee on Aids, and the collapse of the Soviet Union.

Afropolitan Horizons
Essays toward a Literary Anthropology of Nigeria
Ulf Hannerz,
Stockholm University

"This is a beautifully written and evocative portrait of an anthropologist's long-term interests in Nigerian writing and writers, with a focus on Nigeria's engagements with the wider world. The author's rich storytelling combines narratives of fieldwork, historical background, erudite scholarship, and analyses of the texts considered... This book takes literary anthropology to new heights." · Deborah Reed-Danahay,

Nourishing the Nation
Food as National Identity in Catalonia

Venetia Johannes, University of Oxford

"This is an excellent piece of work on Catalan gastrationalism as lived reality. It is written well and very readable – not a dry academic monograph but a vivid depiction of how people live 'food' in today's Catalonia." · Atsuko Ichijo, Kingston University

Waiting for Elijah
Time and Encounter in a Bosnian Landscape

Safet HadžiMuhamedović, University of Cambridge

"Waiting for Elijah is a forceful, poignant, and illuminating intervention ... profoundly a book about home. [It] could join other anthropological classics that deal with people's attachment to their landscapes... HadžiMuhamedović is quite aware of the tension this produces. It is obvious that he has to answer both the call of a poet and that of a scholar." · Anthropos

Medieval Intersections

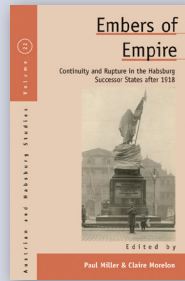

Gender and Status in Europe in the Middle Ages

Edited by Katherine Weikert,
University of Winchester and Elena Woodacre, *University of

Tropics of Vienna

Colonial Utopias of the Habsburg Empire

Ulrich E. Bach, Texas State University

"Bach's book both insightful and accessible... his study breaks some important new ground, if not on the utopian genre, then certainly on the history and literary legacy of the late Habsburg Empire. His work will thus appeal beyond the circle of literary scholarship, and will be of interest to historians, geographers, and area studies scholars concerned with Central Europe during the critical and ever-fascinating fin de siècle." · International Social Science Review

The Indoctrination of the Wehrmacht

Nazi Ideology and the War Crimes of the German Military

Bryce Sait, Cambridge University

"This is an important book, one that provides a clear and compelling narrative for readers interested in how the Wehrmacht evolved into a willing tool of the Führer. While it relies heavily on the findings of previous research, Sait's approach effectively situates these findings within the context of the Wehrmacht's institutional culture dating back to the beginnings of the Nazi regime." · Europe Now

Berghahn eBooks

All new Berghahn titles are available simultaneously in print and online editions. Our partnerships offer a range of choices for individuals and libraries alike:

Individual eBooks

Download Berghahn eBooks to your smartphone, tablet, e-reader, or computer, directly from berghahnbooks.com or from select retailers, including Amazon, Apple, Barnes & Noble eBooks.com, Google Play, Kobo, Libri, and Perlego.

Institutional eBooks

Our ebooks are available across libraries worldwide through partnerships that include: Baobab eBooks (Africa), CNPIEC (China), EBSCO, Gardners, JSTOR, Overdrive, and ProQuest Ebook Central (formerly ebrary and EBL). Libraries have a variety of purchase options—perpetual access, short-term loan or subscription—to a wide range of Berghahn eBooks across all our subjects. If an older title is not available from your library supplier, please ask them to request it from us.

Info for Instructors

We offer free and extended digital exam copies. For deciding on books for your current or upcoming semester's class, we provide free digital inspection copies and have also extended the standard review period to 90 days. Electronic Files for Print-Disabled Students For accessible file requests you can obtain files at Bookshare.org (US), RNIB Bookshare (UK) or email: productionus@berghahnbooks.com
