

FACT SHEET

INGRAM | Publisher Services UK

Summary

Ingram Publisher Services UK is the new name for the company previously known as NBN International. NBN International is a full service book distributor with almost 30 years of experience meeting publishers' needs. Many NBN International clients have relied on the staff in Plymouth to handle their distribution functions for more than 20 years. Longstanding client relationships based on mutual trust and respect are common place at NBN International.

With extensive experience of the publishing industry supply chain, well-established ecommerce systems and the resources of its US sister companies, NBNI delivers a complete end-to-end eBook service for clients with existing digital publishing programmes and those entering the digital market for the first time.

iG Publishing Site | Publisher URL

Special Highlights

Academic, Professional, Science, Technical, Medical

Benefits to Users

NBNI understands that flexibility is important and offers tailored eBook solutions, with publishers able to select from the NBNI Fusion services such as Fusion Trade, Fusion Direct and Data Services.

Best Selling Titles

An introductory guide to anatomy & physiology

READ MORE

Psychosocial and relationship-based practice

READ MORE

Changing London: a rough guide for the next London mayor

READ MORE

Scandinavian unexceptionalism: culture, markets and the failure of third-way socialism

READ MORE

Classical liberalism - a primer

READ MORE

CSA scenarios for the MRCGP: frameworks for clinical consultations, 3rd edition

READ MORE

Selfishness, greed and capitalism: debunking myths about the free market

READ MORE

Medical statistics made easy, 2nd edition

READ MORE

From crisis to confidence: macroeconomics after the crash

READ MORE

Physics in Anaesthesia

READ MORE