

HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Specializes in Academic

Berghahn Books specializes in academic publishing by focusing on social sciences and humanities disciplines. They provide a comprehensive range of scholarly works, journals, and publications tailored for libraries, researchers, practitioners, and students, maintaining a reputation for quality and excellence in academic publishing.

Categories and Subjects

Berghahn Books covers key subjects and categories such as anthropology, history, cultural studies, film and media studies, sociology, politics, environmental studies, and gender studies. Their publications include scholarly works, journals, and books that contribute to academic discourse in social sciences and humanities.

About

Berghahn Books, founded in 1994, is an esteemed independent scholarly press specializing in social sciences and humanities publications for libraries, researchers, and students. Renowned for quality, it holds a strong transatlantic presence with close ties to continental Europe.

VIEW TITLES