

Specializes in Academic

Business Expert Press (BEP) offers concise eBooks tailored for business students and faculty, aiding classroom learning and research. Their targeted content covers specific subjects at affordable prices, catering to the needs of academia effectively.

Categories and Subjects

Business Expert Press (BEP) covers key subjects and categories such as business strategy, management, entrepreneurship, marketing, finance, accounting, operations management, organizational behavior, and human resource management. Their publications focus on practical insights, case studies, and industry-specific knowledge for academic and professional development.

About

Business Expert Press (BEP) provides concise and reliable information for executives and business students. Founded to offer expert guidance, BEP publishes works by professors worldwide, including journal articles, textbooks, and topical articles, supporting teaching and consulting endeavors effectively.

VIEW TITLES

