

HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Specializes in Academic

National Book Network (NBN) specializes in academic publishing by providing sales, marketing, and distribution services for academic publishers of commercial fiction and nonfiction books, as well as audio titles. With a focus on serving the academic community, NBN supports the dissemination of scholarly works to a wide audience.

Categories and Subjects

National Book Network (NBN) offers key subjects and categories including commercial fiction, nonfiction books, audio titles, academic publications, literature, history, science, arts, business, education, and a diverse range of genres and topics to cater to the interests of readers and academic audiences.

About

National Book Network (NBN), established in 1986, is a service-oriented sales, marketing, and distribution company catering to publishers of commercial fiction, nonfiction books, and audio titles in North America and overseas. NBN is a subsidiary of The Rowman & Littlefield Publishing Group, Inc., a prominent academic publisher in North America.

VIEW TITLES