

HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Specializes in Academic

Arc focuses on rigorous scholarly research across late antique, medieval and early modern studies, including global and regional area studies, digital humanities and public engagement with the past. It combines strict peer review, rapid turnaround and full Open Access compliance to support cutting-edge academic work worldwide.

Categories and Subjects

Key strengths include premodern and medieval history, global and comparative area studies (within and beyond Europe), cultural and religious history, literature, digital humanities and scholarship connecting past and present. Arc particularly stands out for “edgy” interdisciplinary projects and research fostering broader public understanding of historical worlds.

ARC HUMANITIES PRESS

About

Arc Humanities Press is a specialist academic-led press dedicated to the history and impact of the premodern past. Originating from the CARMEN Worldwide Medieval Network, it publishes innovative, globally oriented scholarship and ensures wide digital and print distribution through leading platforms and partners.

VIEW TITLES

