

MEDICAL AND HEALTH SCIENCE

Specializes in Academic

Springer Publishing Company produce high-quality publications in nursing, gerontology, rehabilitation, psychology, public health, social work, and counselling. These resources cater to the educational and professional needs of healthcare professionals, researchers, educators, and students in the academic field.

Categories and Subjects

Key categories and subjects provided by Springer Publishing Company include nursing, gerontology, rehabilitation, psychology, public health, social work, counseling, healthcare administration, occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech-language pathology, palliative care, end-of-life care, psychiatry, and mental health. Springer Publishing covers a broad spectrum of healthcare disciplines.

About

Springer Publishing Company, an independent publisher for over 60 years, focuses on healthcare and helping professions. Known for nursing, gerontology, and rehabilitation publications, it also serves psychology, public health, social work, and counseling. Springer's books have garnered awards, including from the American Journal of Nursing and ALA Choice Awards.

VIEW TITLES