

HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Specializes in Academic

The World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) specializes in academic initiatives by promoting responsible and sustainable tourism practices through market research, policy development, education, and training programs. UNWTO focuses on advancing knowledge, sustainable policies, and instruments to enhance tourism's role in global development.

Categories and Subjects

The World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) covers key subjects and categories including responsible tourism, sustainable tourism practices, market knowledge, tourism policies, tourism education, training programs, economic growth through tourism, inclusive development, environmental sustainability, and tourism as a tool for global development. UNWTO's initiatives span various aspects of the tourism sector.

About

The World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) is the United Nations agency advocating for responsible, sustainable, and accessible tourism. UNWTO leads in promoting tourism as a driver of economic growth, inclusive development, and environmental sustainability worldwide.

VIEW TITLES

