

HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Specializes in Academic

African Books Collective specializes in academic publishing by distributing scholarly books from African publishers to libraries, institutions, and readers. Its model expands access to African research, supports publishers, and advances circulation of African scholarship in print and digital formats worldwide.

African Books Collective

Categories and Subjects

Key subjects include African studies, literature, history, politics, law, economics, education, development studies, languages and linguistics, religion, philosophy, biography, children's books, art, photography, film, music, science, technology, medicine, nature, publishing, reference books, and African culture, plus drama and poetry categories.

About

African Books Collective is an African-owned, not-for-profit marketing and distribution collective for books from Africa. Founded by African publishers, it promotes scholarly, literary, and children's titles while strengthening visibility and reach of African publishing worldwide.

VIEW TITLES

