

HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Specializes in Academic

HKU Press specializes in academic publishing by rigorously reviewing all submissions and collaborating with prominent scholars. It emphasizes multilingual publications, focusing on both English and Chinese titles, enhancing access to critical research and expanding knowledge across various disciplines.

Categories and Subjects

Key subjects include cultural studies, film and media studies, Chinese history and culture, law, education, social work, medicine, linguistics, and language studies. The press seeks to address local and international issues, enriching academic discourse in diverse fields.

About

Founded in 1956, Hong Kong University Press (HKU Press) has been connecting Hong Kong, Asia, and the world for more than six decades. As the publishing arm of The University of Hong Kong, one of Asia's leading English-speaking universities, HKU Press is known for rigorous academic publishing, peer-reviewed scholarship, and a distinctive bilingual publishing tradition in both English and Chinese.

VIEW TITLES